SALEM BOWLERS MAKE CLEAN SWEEP OF TWO OPENING CONTESTS

Corvallis Julians and Eugene Obaks Each Beaten In Three Straight

Salem bowlers made a clean sweep of the opening games of the Willamette Valley Bowling association when the Electricians trimmed the Obaks at the Club alleys yesterday and the Corvallis Julians fell before the onslaughts of Kress' Colts at Corvallis Saturday. The game here yesterday afternoon aroused keen interest in the game and Barney Noud's cohorts fell upon the Obaks of Eugene and took three straight games by the scores of 834 to 774, 911 to 874, and 901 to 820. L. Pierce rolled the high game of 214 and also the high score of 294.

The first game of the Club team was scheduled with the Albany team but a fire burned up the Albany alleys late last week and the game was transferred to Corvallis. Captain Kress took along a bunch of the younger bowlers which he christened "The Colts." The christening fund was not named in the report but at any rate it enabled the Colts to romp home with three straight games on the Corvallis home grounds. The score of the Obaks vs. Electricians:

The following is the score of the Corvallis game:

HARVARD DEVELOPES ANOTHER GREAT KICKER

Captain Eddie Mahan Whose Booting Defeated Virginia Is the Man

New York, Oct. 18.—Harvard has developed a kicker who gives promise of out-Brickleying Brickley. This was the outstanding fact today in the discussions of Saturday's football games in the east.

The new star is Captain Eddie Mahan of the Crimson eleven to whose booting the Crimson owes its victory over Virginia. Harvard failed to display an attack calculated to raise the hopes of Harvard rooters.

The other leading teams in the east, Yale, Princeton and Cornell came through the week-end still on top of the heap. Princeton showed the best all round team work of the quartet.

Yale did not show impressively in its victory over the Springfield Y. M. C. A. Cornell's work against Bucknell was impressive, but was not a real test, because Bucknell's strength was not great enough to force the Ithacans to extend themselves.

CAPTURED VILLA'S NAVY.

Galveston, Texas, Oct. 18.—Carranza's fleet (two loose boats) has captured Villa's navy (one of the same kind of boats) on the Pacific coast of Mexico according to a message to the Carranza agency here today.

Salem High Defeats Newberg High 34 to 0

Salem high school defeated Newberg high school in a fast game on the Willamette field Saturday afternoon by the score of 34 to 0.

The grand stand was packed with rooters and the yell leaders produced some of the best yelling from the rooting sections that has been heard in a long time. The band played a merry tune as the two teams came onto the field and promptly at 3 o'clock the game was called.

Salem kicked off to Newberg's 10 yard line and they returned it about 10 yards, within two minutes of scrimmage, "Tekon" Grosvenor carried the ball over for the first touchdown. The quarter closed without further score being made and the ball on Salem's 29 yard line, Albany having tried a forward pass which crossed the goal line, but was incomplete.

By consistent line bucking Salem secured another touchdown and "Monk" Proctor converted his kick into a goal, making the score 13 to 0.

After the next kick-off and on the first line-up for scrimmage the first accident of the game occurred when "Rocky" Williams tackled Kremain, both men had deep gashes cut in their head where they collided.

Newberg tried a place kick formation which failed and Salem ran the ball back 35 yards. Time was called for the end of the half. Between halves the excitement was continued by the entire rooting section marching across the field and rounding up five stray freshmen and dipping them into the chilly mill race for failing to join in the rooting.

In the second half both teams went into the game with a dash and a number of brilliant plays were pulled off by both sides. Salem's third touchdown came from a long forward pass, and kicking goal brought the score up 20. Salem secured another touchdown and kicked goal, and the quarter was up. In the fourth quarter Salem secured but one touchdown, this too, on a forward pass. Score 34 to 0.

Newberg team was outweighed by the Salem boys, but nevertheless they played a gritty and hard fought game. Salem made frequent use of the forward pass and invariably made good gains. The team plays like a machine; the line holds firmly while the fast back field kept off for end runs before their opponents are in action.

The line-ups were as follows:

Farm and Field Talks About Corn For Seed

It is not necessary for corn to be ripe in order to make good seed. Corn in the milk can be dried, and it will grow well if it has been properly cared for. Much corn that is now in shock will make good seed if taken care of at once, before there is danger of severe freezing. This soft corn should be cured in a dry, warm room. Remove all the husk. Make a "corn tree" by driving finishing nails into a 2x4 set on a firm base. Space the nails so that the ears will not touch. There should be a stove in the room, and free ventilation. Keep up the drying until the kernels shell freely under twisting in the hand. If your seed is short, do this and save possible corn failure in 1916.

Charlton Tells of Killing of His Wife; Love For Her Intense

I would gladly have shed every drop of blood."
He said his first thought after the crime was to commit suicide but he abandoned this on account of regard for his family.

Under the strain of his dramatic recital, Charlton broke down and the court adjourned at his request.

The young man—aged some by his years in an Italian jail, his face lined and haggard—was a pathetic figure as he told his story in Italian. Repeatedly he was on the verge of tears.

The court is considering adjournment to Monday at the request of Charlton's counsel who has been ill.

The little court room was crowded. The throng was spellbound as he told his story and seemed to live over again the events of the romance which ended in so shocking a tragedy.

Legal experts inclined to believe Charlton will either go free or will have a much modified sentence, for "crimes of passion," so-called, are not, as a rule harshly considered in Italy.

Texas Rivers All Are On a Rampage

Denison, Texas, Oct. 18.—Choked by heavy autumn rains, rivers in northern central Texas and southern Oklahoma are on the rampage today.

Hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of crops have already been destroyed, while railroads in some sections are demoralized. Corn in the shock has been ruined at many points, while thousands of bales of cotton, unprotected, have been destroyed.

The Red river rose 13 feet and washed out a 165 foot trestle on the Katy here. Katy and Frisco trains to the north have been annulled.

HE CHOKED TO DEATH

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 18.—Miss Helen Haggood, of Kirkland across Lake Washington from Seattle, is held at the city jail today pending investigation into the death of Norman Kent, 53, a music teacher, who, she says, choked to death while she was taking a singing lesson in his studio last night. The couple had eaten some peanuts and candy, she said, during the lesson, and he had been coughing more or less as he accompanied her at the piano. Suddenly he collapsed. She rushed to a nearby drugstore to summon aid. When Dr. E. M. Smith of the city hospital service arrived, Kent was dead.

Kent came here from Los Angeles last April. He formerly was manager of the Wisner Piano Manufacturing company, of New York where his wife, also a musician, resides.

NON PARTISAN ELECTION LAW

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 18.—Providing for the non-partisan election of all the state and county, as well as city officers, from governor down, a bill, modeled after the California law passed by the 1915 legislature, has been prepared today to be filed as an initiative measure. According to law, the bill cannot be filed before the first of the year. An active campaign will be made by the Washington State Referendum League for its adoption.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

The circuit court in department No. 1 closed its October term Saturday night when the verdict in the case of S. A. Hughes against the Salem school district was returned by the jury. Judge Kelly then discharged the jurymen of the petit jury and the October term was ended with the exception of a case to be heard without a jury by Judge Percy R. Kelly on October 30. The grand jury was excused earlier in the term and will not be called together again unless some important business is to be taken up before the January term of the court.

Hom Gee was bound over to the grand jury under $500 bail in Justice Webster's court Saturday on a charge of destroying property. The complainant was Long G. Giddens, administrator of the estate of Long G. Giddens, deceased. It was charged that Hom Gee burned up some records and documents belonging to the complainant.

B. F. Townsend has brought a suit for divorce against May Townsend, his wife, alleging that they were married February 28, 1914, and that she deserted him and has remained away for a year. Donald W. Miles is attorney for the plaintiff.

The case of Della Hepper against Henry Hepper for divorce is still pending in Judge Galloway's department of the circuit court. The judge ordered the principals to settle their differences relative to the division of the property outside of court and the case was continued until this was accomplished.

A marriage license was issued at the office of the county clerk this afternoon to Ross C. Peltit, a farmer of Stayton, and Miss Stella M. Fleming, a Salem milliner.

E. P. Morcom, of Woodburn, was today appointed administrator of the estate of Jacob Jensen, who died October 14 in this county, leaving an estate consisting of real and personal property to the value of $500. The only heirs of the deceased are brother and sister residing in Germany.

DOWNWARD COURSE

Fast Being Realized by Salem People.
A little backache at first.
Daily increasing 'till the back is lame and weak.
Urinary disorders may quickly follow;
Dropsy and often Bright's disease.
This frequently is the downward course of kidney ills.

Don't take this course. Follow the advice of a Salem citizen.
W. H. Bradley, farmer, 614 S. 21st St., Salem, says: "About two years ago kidney trouble came on me. First my back began to ache, then pain seemed to spread all over my body, like rheumatism. The kidney secretions were unnatural and I knew that my kidneys were disordered. I read an endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills given by one of my neighbors, and I got some. Before I started the second box of this medicine I was almost entirely free from pain and my kidneys acted regularly. I have used Doan's Kidney Pills since with good results."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Bradley had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

HENRY FORD BLAMES WALL STREET FOR WAR

Says He Is Finishing a Plan For Gigantic System of Education

San Francisco, Oct. 18.—"Right now the European war is being carried on by Wall Street. I believe this is the last great war in history. Militaryism is to be finally wiped out. The whole trouble now is they are shooting the wrong men. If the right men were shot, and not the poor soldiers, the war would be over in a week."

These are some of the things Henry Ford, wizard of mechanics, said today on his arrival here to participate in Ford day at the Panama-Pacific exposition.

"The day is not far off," he added, "when the men who are now making up the world's armies will refuse to fight without a just cause."

"As far as America goes, unpreparedness is the man who has interest in the building of battleships and the manufacture of ammunition and who is swayed by his pocketbook. The way to stop war is to educate the people and this should be done at once by all newspapers. I am now finishing a plan for a gigantic system of education and will do this through a corps of trained newspapermen who will be press agents of peace. Regarding my supposed statement on submarines, what I said was that I believed a large fleet of small divers could sweep the seas with great destruction but I know these would not be popular because they would not cost much money and therefore would not interest the man behind wars who is a manufacturer. Ninety percent of Americans are against war and there is no reason why we should even talk preparedness. It is not the man who must go out and shoot his fellow men who is interested in the war talk."

"The Japanese say they need more territory. Let them have it and let them come in and irrigate our western soil of which there is a plenty. Let all foreigners come in and do this. The ground is lying idle. There is room for all and this will bring a very friendly relationship between us and all nations."

"I wish to have it understood that the naval advisory board calls upon me for advice. I will advise them to educate themselves on the evils of war and of preparedness. I will not favor any plan they may have which would increase either navy or army."

"If Mr. Edison is to look over the bay for possible hints for better fortification for San Francisco, naturally I will accompany him but will make no suggestions, because I don't believe in them."

ANYWAY HE IS "DETAINED."

Everett, Wash., Oct. 18.—"Unavoidably detained" is the reason given today by F. C. Heath for postponing his wedding.

He was to have married Miss Daisy Kernan at Seattle today but as he was leaving here with the bride Saturday, Don's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Bradley had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

ONLY TWO OF CREW LEFT.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 18.—Captain Sato Malle and one sailor are today the only members of the original crew on board the Peruvian barkentine Stella, which reached here from Port Townsend after being fumed. The original crew was stricken during the voyage, with beri beri, several of them dying.
